

Department of Management Bylaws

The department's mission is to be known for exceptionally strong programs built by award-winning teachers and scholars who are experts in strategic management, human resource management, organizational behavior, international management, organization theory, and ethics.